

FASHION

THE COLOUR OF GRACE

Conformists may not agree but far from shimmery and loud, muted pastels in rich textiles will set the tone for brides this summer. Fashion pundits are already noticing and responding to a noticeable shift away from the traditional reds and maroons to jewel tones and other ice cool shades. Here's a refreshing move away from the heavy wedding bling.

Photographed by Sharik Verma Styled and conceptualised by Nisha Kundrani for Bridélan (bridal consultancy service)
Wedding Planner: Roma Kundrani Hair & Makeup: Ambreen Yusuf